On Behalf of the Class of 2007, We
Would like to Dedicate our Yearbook to...

Mr. Hall

We honor a man who has been a great influence to the graduating class of 2007, Mr. Frankie Lee Hall. Mr. Hall has been a teacher, friend, and mentor who has guided us on our journey through high school. Many of us were fortunate to have you as an instructor and many of us quickly welcomed your dedication and your determination. Your ability to make bricks and mortar feel like a welcoming place has helped us open our eyes to "Do the right thing." We'll never forget your many lessons not just in Economics and History but also the important life examples that we will carry with us forever. We will always hear your many inspirations and somewhat humorous quotes like "Fall in love with yourself." As we leave our school and we move on to the next chapter in our lives, we take with us all the memories of you. With great respect and admiration, we the class of 2007 would like to thank you, Mr. Hall, from the bottom of our hearts. "Write that down."

The Headmaster's Farewell

To the Class of 2007:

My fondest memory of the members of the Class of 2007 is the commitment that you shared for your classmates. Time and time again, your actions demonstrated that you treated each other as family. Your relationships with both faculty and peers set the tone for the school - truly a case of leadership by example.

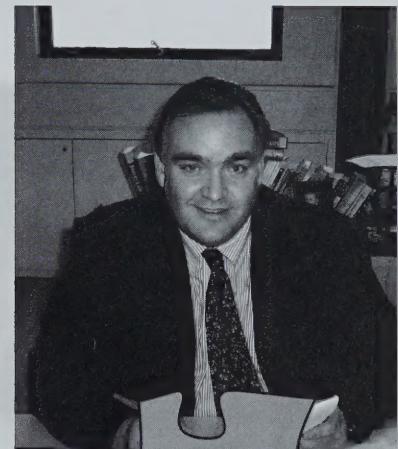

As you look back on your time at the O'Bryant, I urge you to consider how you will make use of what you found here. Education does not only come from books and papers, but also from people, places, experiences, and relationships. The spaces that you occupied here were full of these elements. My hope is that you are able to look back on your time at the O'Bryant as a catalyst for great experiences, relationships, and accomplishments.

Thank you for your contributions to our school, and best wishes for a very successful future!

Sincerely,

Joel Stembidge
